

Dear FEC:

In response to your letter dated March 14, 2008, please note the following:

- 1) Fundraising fees were paid to Blackrock Associates, LLC for on line and web based fundraising services. Fundraising fees paid to Annie Eagan were fees for planning and solicitations. No fundraising expenditures were applicable to any federal candidates. All fundraising fees paid were for this committee's own internal fundraising purposes.
- 2) Administrative expenses are paid by this committee for its own expenses as incurred. The committee is not connected to another organization and no other organization pays this committee's administrative expenses. All administrative expenses are properly paid within required time limits, and no debts were outstanding at December 31, 2007. All administrative expenses in excess of $200 have been properly itemized on Schedule B. As clearly shown on the report, the committee has paid its own legal and accounting expenses for filing services and legal advice.
- 3) There is limited volunteer activity for this committee. There is a volunteer board of directors that makes decisions with regards to administrative matters such as hiring fundraisers, and making contributions to appropriate candidates.
